BESD Welcomes New Principal to Inca Elementary School

BUCKEYE, ARIZONA – (August 7, 2017) – Inca Elementary School, in Buckeye, Arizona, part of the Buckeye Elementary School District, welcomed a new principal this school year. Veronica Griffin, who previously was the campus director for the Brightmont Academy in Chandler, brings 25 years of educational experience to this role, including two years as a school principal.

“Mrs. Griffin brings a wealth of knowledge and boundless energy to this role,” said Buckeye Elementary School District Superintendent Dr. Kristi Sandvik.” Her experiences in the K-8 education system is a tremendous asset for the teachers and students at Inca, but also for the district as a whole.”

Inca Elementary, located at 23601 W. Durango Street, has more than 750 students and provides Kindergarten through 8th grade instruction.

“My number one goal is to ensure that every student is provided with a high quality education in a safe and supportive learning environment,” said Griffin. “I am committed to ensuring that student needs and interests help shape instructional and extracurricular activities, leading to confident, happy, healthy students learning at optimal levels.”

Griffin received her bachelor’s degree in psychology from Jackson State University and her master’s degree in educational leadership and administration from Arizona State University. In addition to her experience as a principal, Griffin has more than 16 years teaching experience in the classroom and seven years as a school, district and university instructional coach and professional development facilitator.

Griffin lives in Avondale with her husband Daren. They have five grown children.
